Description:

July 2018 7th - Hot Fingers with Emily Campbell - and a warm welcome for the UK group led by maestro "Spats" Langham on guitar/banjo and most requested by our audience. The music is described as "vintage acoustic swing" - the red hot jazz of 1920's New York. Be that as it may, this is a truly class act with the added bonus of classically trained vocalist Emily, who raises the temperature significantly and who draws her inspiration from Ella and Peggy Lee. 14th - Stephanie Trick + Paolo Alderighi - once again, we are delighted to join in the festivities as part of the Boston Spa Festival Weekend by presenting Stephanie & Paolo from the USA. Two young musicians of outstanding talent playing singly and duets in the 'Harlem Stride' piano style. Think Fats Waller and, latterly, Jeff Barnhart. Here's a 'taster' from You Tube - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?reload=9&v=WWeGfQ-XqPI> International talent right here on your doorstep in Boston Spa - not to be missed! And - we have a two person piano stool! 21st - Sorry - No Jazz 28th - Keith Nichols + John Hallam + Graham Smith - the Blue Three - the rearranged session following the weather cancellation in March. It's a first appearance in Boston Spa for Keith - one of the UK's most respected musicians and an exceptional pianist. Here he joins forces with our favourite reeds player, John Hallam to provide an evening of outstanding classical jazz. This will certainly be a memorable session. see www.jazznorthwest.co.uk/bstn_spa.htm for more details

Description:

July 2018 7th - Hot Fingers with Emily Campbell - and a warm welcome for the UK group led by maestro "Spats" Langham on guitar/banjo and most requested by our audience. The music is described as "vintage acoustic swing" - the red hot jazz of 1920's New York. Be that as it may, this is a truly class act with the added bonus of classically trained vocalist Emily, who raises the temperature significantly and who draws her inspiration from Ella and Peggy Lee. 14th - Stephanie Trick + Paolo Alderighi - once again, we are delighted to join in the festivities as part of the Boston Spa Festival Weekend by presenting Stephanie & Paolo from the USA. Two young musicians of outstanding talent playing singly and duets in the 'Harlem Stride' piano style. Think Fats Waller and, latterly, Jeff Barnhart. Here's a 'taster' from You Tube - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?reload=9&v=WWeGfQ-XqPI> International talent right here on your doorstep in Boston Spa - not to be missed! And - we have a two person piano stool! 21st - Sorry - No Jazz 28th - Keith Nichols + John Hallam + Graham Smith - the Blue Three - the rearranged session following the weather cancellation in March. It's a first appearance in Boston Spa for Keith - one of the UK's most respected musicians and an exceptional pianist. Here he joins forces with our favourite reeds player, John Hallam to provide an evening of outstanding classical jazz. This will certainly be a memorable session. see www.jazznorthwest.co.uk/bstn_spa.htm for more details

More info from Greg Robleygregrobley@hotmail.co.uk Hi everyone, Hoping you're all enjoying the long awaited Summer!, long days, cool beers, barbecues and of course Fish and Chips! Well what a packed May we had with Elj, Morris Jones, Neil Yates and Kirk Ward. I'm sure we'll have just as enjoyable June, lots happening so read on.... We start things off on the 4th June with Singer/Guitarist Steve Pablo. As well as being a musician, Steve is also an accomplished artist, some of his work you can see in his shop in Caernarfon. You will be impressed if you see it Steve will be joined by Dave Stephen on Guitar and Joss Jones on Cahon. Just a little reminder that in Cadwaladers in Criccieth on the 7th June Belle Journée, a four piece French band will be performing from 7.30 onwards. A sophisticated mixture of Latin, French, Swing, Blues and Standards featuring Wendy Gill, Ian Stopes, Alan Tunstall and Ed Lloyd Hughes. £5 entry. A welcome return to the chippy for Marcia Pendlebury on the 11th June. All the classics here from the golden era of female Jazz vocalists. On the 18th June making a flying visit to North Wales from his new home in Brum, Garry Bywater, yes the sax maniac is back to blow his Tenor! Ok, Back to Criccieth now! Festival week and a couple of great gigs happening in Cadwaladers if you're up for them. Firstly on Tuesday the 19th Ray Brook will be bringing his Flute and his EWI (Electric wind instrument) to see us for the evening. He'll be accompanied by Ray Forrest on Drums and Andy and myself. If that wasn't enough on Thursday the 21st, another jam packed evening of Jazz music with Niall Ross on Tenor and Soprano Saxophone, Isaac Horne on Trumpet, Mal Fisher on Piano and Andy and myself holding things down at the back! Right back to Pwllheli. That brings us to the end of the month and it's the turn of local Singer and Guitarist Dewi Evans on the 25th. A great mixture of classic pop and rock tunes from the 60's up to the present day. A great voice! That brings us up to date then. As always give us a ring to get booked in on 01758 612641 to get a table. As always, please let us know if you book and then can't make it, you know why by now!!! Just one other thing, lots of talk about data protection at the moment. Just wanted to assure that my email lists are to only let you know about events that I think you may be interested in. No information is shared with third parties and if you wish to be removed from my list please let me know. So that's it for now, enjoy the Summer and hopefully we'll see a few of you in Jazz'n'chiPs @Allports this month. Take care. Greg

Description:

Just thought I'd mention I've been promoting a monthly Jazz Session here in Whitchurch for the past six months. It's called 'JAZZ AT THE ANCHOR' (the Anchor being a Whitchurch Pub). We meet on the third Wednesday each month, and the music is usually played by 'The Derek Harrison Trio' with Guests. Regulars are 'Mad Ed' Lloyd Hughes - Bass and Graham 'Rockit' Ashley on drums. It's a small venue, serving good food and ale, and as a result we are getting 'sell-outs' each month. It's wise to book ahead and The Anchor tel. no. is 01948 663086. 'Professor' Derek Harrison - Piano
